

PUBLIC GENERAL LAW.

2717

Page.

Wholesale merchants required to take out license—1824, ch. 158, sec. 2,*	816
Retailers of liquors not required to take out a license as a retailer of dry goods—1824, ch. 158, sec. 3,*	816
Persons neglecting to take license as directed by this act, and the act to which this is a supplement, to be proceeded against as before directed—1824, ch. 158, sec. 4,*	816
Any person prosecuted under this act and the act to which this is a supplement, required to prove that the merchandise sold was not of foreign growth—1824, ch. 158, sec. 5,*	816
Licenses to sell spirituous liquors and other articles to be granted to the owner or occupant of any fisheries on the Potomac river, during the fishing season—1825, ch. 110,	2083
No judge to grant a license to ordinary-keepers or retailers of spirituous liquors—but the clerks of the county courts in the recess of the courts may grant the same to ordinary-keepers—1825, ch. 214,	869
The occupants of shad and herring fisheries on the Chesapeake bay to be entitled to the same privileges as those on the Potomac—1825, ch. 214,	869
Regulations for the granting licenses to ordinary-keepers and retailers of spirituous liquors by the county clerks—1825, ch. 214,	869
To traders, keepers of ordinaries and others, to regulate the issuing of—1827, ch. 117,	929
Persons, except the grower, maker or manufacturer of the specific article offered therein, prohibited from opening any store, &c. to sell wholesale or retail, therefrom, any merchandise, &c. without obtaining license therefor—1827, ch. 117, sec. 1,	928
Persons carrying on shad and herring fisheries may sell salt, to cure fish, during March, April and May, without license—1827, ch. 117, sec. 1,	929
Clerk of each county court, and of the city court of Baltimore, required to issue licenses to any person to sell goods, &c. at prescribed places, upon receiving $12 therefor—1827, ch. 117, sec. 2,	929
Sale of liquors, &c. in less quantities than one pint at a time, excepted, under such license—1827, ch. 117, sec. 2,	929
Sale of liquors, &c. in quantities less than ten gallons, and not less than a pint, prohibited under such license in the city of Baltimore, unless $4 in addition to the $12, be paid to the clerk of the city court therefor, which said $4 is to be applied to the expenses of the gaol, &c.—1827, ch. 117, sec. 2,	929
Such licenses to state expressly that the person is so authorized to sell liquors in such quantities—1827, ch. 117, sec. 2,	929
In case of removal of store, &c. the name and description of the new place, &c. to be endorsed by the county clerk upon the said license, in order to authorize selling therein—1827, ch. 117, sec. 2,	929
No distiller of spirituous liquors to sell less than a quart, without a license—1827, ch. 117, sec. 2,	929

* See note thereto.